Why is it correct to affirm that the Ku Klux Klan has long been a Terrorist Organization?

Note: Based on the video-class plus another trustworthy source. In English and in between 100 and 200 words.

The Ku Klux Klan has accurately been classified as a terrorist organization due to its systematic use of violence, intimidation, and terror tactics to achieve political and social objectives against civil population, and employed coordinated campaigns of lynching, bombing, arson, and murder primarily targeting African Americans, and also Jews, Catholics, immigrants, and civil rights activists.

The organization's terrorist nature is evidenced by its documented history of extrajudicial killings, with historians estimating thousands of lynchings over the years. The group utilized distinctive symbols like burning crosses and white robes to implant psychological terror in communities, and just a few decades ago (50-60s) their activities included night raids, whipping, tar-and-feathering, and bombing churches and homes of civil rights workers.

One evidence of linguistic prejudice against the black man in Hughes' poem is the use of the word "NIGGER" (Stanza 5).

Research in a good dictionary the semantics involving this word and write down here why this term has a highly racist tone.

Note: Answer in English. In between 70 and 30 words.

Originating from "niger" (Latin for black), the term "nigger" carries a highly racist tone due to its historical use to dehumanize Black people during slavery, becoming synonymous with inferiority and violence. It is labeled as "extremely disparaging and offensive," perhaps the most offensive racial insult in English.
